Behaviour

Representing WVMHA

All players, team officials and parents must recognize that they are representatives of both our Association and our greater community. Our members are expected to take pride recognize that their personal actions can have an impact on the reputation of the Association. We are all ambassadors of WVMHA and it is critical to our success that we take pride in who we are and maintain our integrity and an honourable reputation both within minor hockey and the greater community.

Accordingly, as indicated in our bylaws, the Board has the “power to suspend any player, coach, manager or officer of a team for ungentlemanly conduct on or off the ice, including but without limitation abusive language to any official, coach or other person, or for alleged falsification of any registration or record, and such suspensions shall be effective until reviewed by the Directors.”

‘Team First’ and Life Skills

We dedicate ourselves to the advancement of our players not just as hockey players, but also as individuals within the community.

All too often our children are denied enjoyable sporting experiences because we fail to protect the environment and the very principles on which the game is built. Hockey is more than a game, it is an education. It is also an important part of their upbringing and the success of future generations depends on how well we teach life skills today.

Membership is a PRIVILEGE not a right and with that membership come inherent responsibilities and obligations to protect the sport and most importantly the growth and development of our children.

All participants’ players, parents/spectators/volunteers, coaches, officials, and sport administrators are equally responsible PARTNERS in this endeavor. Every individual involved must examine his/her attitudes, actions and behaviors and make a personal commitment to the principles of Fair Play RESPECT, INTEGRITY and FAIRNESS. There can be no lesser expectation and no greater responsibility as a condition of membership in WVMHA.

All WVMHA parents are required to sign the Fair Play Code contract available online at: <http://www.wvmha.ca/parents/parents-code-of-conduct/>

'24 Hour' Rule & Parent to Coach Communication

Rep Teams - Parents who are not rostered as team officials on REP teams should never initiate communication directly with the coaches except during pre-defined team meetings between the parents and the coaches.

House Teams - Because house and initiation coaches are often parents of team players, the same process as rep applies only to coaching issues, so social communication is normal between parents and parent-coaches but when there is an issue with the coaches that the parent would like to address, they need to also follow the protocol in that all issues need to be processed through the manager.

24-hour Rule: if you have something to say to the coach, or they have something to say to you (that could be contentious) you must wait 24 hours after the event or the game before discussing it. By this time, you have better perspective and a lot of arguments naturally are eliminated in the process.

In all situations the Team Manager is the conduit for confrontational communication. Managers need to understand their role as a non-partisan representative of the team.

Any concerns or issues that need to be addressed by the coaches should be raised with the team manager who will review it with the team head coach. If that doesn't get it resolved then the team manager should inform the Director of Hockey of the situation who will either try to resolve it or bring it to the Board for review and/or dispute process/intervention if necessary.
